

LOVE2STAY

SHROPSHIRE'S LUXURY TOURING
CARAVAN AND GLAMPING RESORT

Our Stay at Love2Stay

One of the best parts of my job working for Clear Sky Safari Tents has to be having the opportunity to actually stay in our Safari Tents!

Over February half term my family and I (including two boys aged 5, and 7, our dog 11, and my husband) were delighted to have the chance to stay at Love2Stay in Shrewsbury.

So why go glamping in February? A number of reasons, we love the chance to take the kids on an adventure and get outside - even with the weather - which included rain, sleet, wind and a little bit of snow for good measure.

Arrival

The site was fantastic and covers over 22 acres of the wonderful Shropshire countryside. It not only offers Glamping, but it also has 122 fully serviced touring pitches. We were welcomed by Laura at reception who directed us round to our Safari Tent - Kingsland.

The Safari Tents

The interior of the tent really was beautiful, from the memory foam mattresses to the fully stocked log burner. Kingsland is one of the 11 Safari Tents on Love2Stays Glamping site that are available all year round.

In the tent you find a bunk bed, cabin bed, double bed, roll top bath and double shower (the bathroom was actually nicer than mine at home!). All the Safari Tents also offer underfloor heating, a log burner and a hot tub.

Facilities

A few minutes' walk from our tent was the onsite café offering food, drinks (inc alcoholic drinks) and a woodfired pizza oven. Within the grounds of the café was the natural swimming pool which is completely free of chemicals, filtered through a reed water garden. There was also an amazing children's natural play adventure zone (as a mum of two boys I know a thing or two about parks!). So, whilst the kids powered through the adventure zone I took the opportunity to go for a relaxing onsite massage (purely for research purposes, of course).

Activities

When we arrived, we were given a full list of the many activities available including kayaking, paddle-boarding and campfire cookery. It was windy and very cold but the boys were desperate to do kayaking, and they loved it. Even when it started to snow.

Back to the Safari Tent for a change of clothes, Steve the site manager was there refilling our logs. I quickly realised that if there was anything at all we needed there was someone on hand to help.

Off Site

Love2Stay is on the doorstep of the beautiful town of Shrewsbury, with its winding streets and river through the town. There is a really diverse selection of shops, restaurants and bars. When we visited, Shrewsbury's historic Wyle Cop had a menagerie of life-size fibreglass animals from a bear to a baby elephant lining the High Street - to celebrate the Darwin Festival. Walking distance from Love2Stay there is also a selection of different pubs, a number also dog friendly. Just ask at reception and they are really happy to help you with directions and talk through the options.

The Family Verdict

We all had a brilliant time at Love2Stay, we love to get out and about as a family. We particularly love being able to take our dog away. The verdict - total success and exactly what we all needed. Even in the very changeable UK weather we were warm and comfortable, entertained and very well fed. What more could we want!
